

CALL FOR PAPERS

Whether it is testimonials, field experience feedback in the development and operational aspects of projects or recent research findings, the Scientific Committee strongly encourages all interested stakeholders to contribute to the sharing of knowledge under the different themes of the symposium.

Submission of a communication proposal to P2CG_2017 shall be in French or English in the form of a short text of 900 words or 2 pages maximum and to facilitate editorial management in the proceedings, respecting as far as possible (feel free to reasonably adapt...) the plan and the structured format described below.

The texts of the proposals are to be deposited via the P2CG platform until 10 October 2017
<https://p2cg2017.sciencesconf.org/>

Recommendations in terms of formatting proposals are downloadable via the link

https://p2cg2017.sciencesconf.org/data/pages/Call for papers P2CG 2017 \(vf\).pdf.pdf)

The scientific committee will evaluate each of the proposals and validate its positioning on one of the thematic axes by proposing to the authors to present it in the form of a report' (20'), a short communication (10') or a poster.

A commented commentary on the proposals will be made to each author.

Guidelines for submission of proposals

Maximum size: 2 printed pages

The first page includes the titles in French and English, the list of authors and affiliations, and the French and English abstracts of (max: 150 words = 10 lines = 900 to 950 characters each). Directly on the first page, following the abstracts, including tables, figures, acknowledgments and bibliographical references.

Typographical instructions: For the whole document: left, right, top and bottom margins of 1, 5 cm

- French title in bold, aligned to the left, not framed, no point at the end of the title. Font: Arial 12 no style definition, single line spacing.
- Author names in capitals (Arial 10). Affiliations of authors (Arial 9) in lower case, except for acronyms. Each author's name will be followed, after a space, by the initial name (s) of the given name (s) followed by a period and, after a space, a digit in parentheses referring to an address. Do not use an exponent or asterisk for returning to the address. Use the comma only to separate two authors, but not a comma between a name and initials or between initials and a reference to an address - French summary: no style definition, font = Arial 10, single line spacing.
- English title: same characteristics as French title. It is followed by the list of authors, followed by the address of the first author and the abstract in English (idem French summary).

Body of the text

- Entered on two columns 8.7 cm wide, space between columns 0.6 cm.
- Left alignment of all texts and bibliographic references. No withdrawal, even for the first lines of the paragraphs, no tabulation.

- No font definition.- Font = Arial, size 9. Simple line.- Accepted Enrichments: bold and italics, exponents and indices.- Do not underline any word, do not frame any text.- Chapters and sub- chapters are separated by A return and a line break. Skip a line after the first level titles
- The titles and numbering of the chapters and subchapters are thus presented:

INTRODUCTION in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 10
1. TITLE LEVEL 1 in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 10
1.1. TITLE LEVEL 2 in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 9
2. RESULTS in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 10
2.1. TITLE LEVEL 2 in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 9
3. DISCUSSION in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 10 CONCLUSION in bold, CAPITALS, Arial size 10

- In the text, bibliographic references are cited by the authors' names (in lowercase letters) and the year of publication, but never by a number. If the reference contains more than 2 authors, only the first will be cited followed by "et al." Example: Dupont and Martin (1986) Dupont et al (1984) - The acronyms will be explained at their first appearance in the text.
- Reminder: in French, the signs ":" and ";" Are always preceded and followed by a space. Idem, the decimal separator is the comma (not the point).

Tables and Figures

Layout of tables and figures: Avoid inserting a table or figure in a paragraph. To save space and readability, insert them at the bottom or at the top of the column.

Tables: Arial size 9. The titles are noted above the table. The format of the tables should be as close as possible to their final size: either width equal to that of a column, height up to full occupancy of the column, or width of the page between the two Margins left / right of the text, - Preferably use the "table" of word to create your table

Figures: the figures will be integrated in the text to their final size. Avoid colors and grayscale, prefer the hatching. The titles are noted below the figure. The legend and the encrypted data must be uniform in size (upper and lower case) and measure at least 1.5 mm high (size 9).

Acknowledgments: Not to mention "Acknowledgments" in title of this paragraph. The acknowledgment phrase (font: Arial 9, italic, no bold) will be placed after the conclusion and before the list of bibliographic references.

List of bibliographic references: Not to mention the title "references" of this paragraph All the bibliographic references cited in the communication must appear in the alphabetical list of the first author entered at the end of the communication. Font: Arial, size 9.

- The names of authors and years of publication are in bold. - The titles of the articles are not indicated. When the reference is from a book, the title of the book will be mentioned, as well as the name of the publisher, the company and the place of publication, the start and end pages of the reference.
 - The references will be, then, for the same first author in chronological order (from the oldest to the most recent).
